

The Weekly Conisionian.

TERMS—$2 00 PER ANNUM.

"REPUBLICAN AT ALL TIMES, AND UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES."

[SINGLE COPIES—5 CENTS]

THE ADVOCATE OF THE RIGHTS OF MAN.

VOLUME 10.

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, THURSDAY, DEC. 25, 1879.

NUMBER 3.

J. B. SOLARI and SONS.

10 CASES OF 12 JARS

NEW FRENCH PRUNES.
5 cases of 50 cartons French PRUNES
25 " 2-25
20 " Benedictine CORDIAL
5 " Maraschino
5 " Cocoa
100 basket Lafaurie ANISETNE
100 " Marie Brizard
25 cases superior Burgundy WINE
200 " Bordeaux
10 " Brandy Cherries
10 " new fruits in juice.
10 " boneless Sardines in oil.
3 " boneless Mackerels in oil.
50 " White Wine Vinegar.
26 cases and bbls. White Wine Vinegar Landing and for sale by
J. B. SOLARI & SONS,
27 and 29 Royal and 75 Camp street.

NEW ORLEANS INSURANCE CO.

Cor. Camp and Canal streets.

Paid Capital - - - $500,000 00

Assets at their market value - - - 619,895 46

DIRECTORS:

A. Schreiber, Charles Lapitte,

A. Carriere, Charles J. Leeds,

H. Gally, D. Fajot,

W. A. Bell, Charles E. Schmidt,

P. Poutz, Ernest Merill,

J. Aldige, Jules Tuyen,

J. W. HICKS, Secretary.

JOHN KUGLER,

Merchant Tailor

145.....COMMON STREET.....145

NEW ORLEANS.

Cleaning and Repairing neatly done.

THE PROGRESS SHAVING SALOON,

No. 97 Rampart, near St. Louis street.

Branch of the Big Casino Saloon, No. 7 Canal street.

J. F. JAILLIOT, Proprietor.

Razors concaved and sharpened. All orders from the country solicited. 9-27

FRUIT TREES.

Apple, Pear, Peach, Plum, Quince,

Crabs, etc.

STOCKS GRAFTS, Apple, Cherry,

Crab, Pear, etc.

EVERGREENS, Shade Trees, Shrubs,

Fruit and Flower Plants.

HEDGE PLANTS, Osage, Backthorn,

Honey Locust, etc.

GREEN HOUSE PLANTS, Splendid

Novelties, Roses, Verbenas, Carnations,

etc. For NEW CATALOGUES OF THE

BLOOMINGTON (PIGEMIX) NURSERY,

Box 1, BLOOMINGTON, ILL.

(Trustee) Box 1, BLOOMINGTON, ILL.

jan-9-4

FIRST CLASS BOARD, by the Day,

Week or Month, 1512 L street N. W.,

Washington, D. C. Mrs. S. D. REVELS,

Proprietress. 11-29

BONQUOIS & PAUL,

Boot and Shoe-Makers,

UNDER THE

ST. CHARLES HOTEL,

Near Common Street,

New Orleans.

AGENTS WANTED to introduce into every county in the South the History of the Book. The best work to sell that has ever been published. Splendid premium to every subscriber. For circulars and terms apply at once to "The Henry Hill Publishing

Co.," 41, 43 and 45 Shetucket street, Norwich, Ct.

LITERARY NOTICE.—The "Earl of Mayfield" has had a remarkable success. Its publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, have already issued the fourth edition. The leading papers speak of it in terms of the highest praise, and it has all the appreciation that the most sanguine expectations of the author could have antici-ated. It is a decidedly popular romance.

For sale by all booksellers.

BOARDING HOUSE

No. 27 Villere St.

(Cor. Customhouse st.)

J. H. PERKINS, Prop'r.

T. B. STAMPS,

COTTON

—AND—

SUGAR FACTOR

—AND—

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANT

Office:

24 Union street.

NEW ORLEANS,

Consignments solicited of

COTTON.

RICE.

SUGAR.

MOLASSES.

—AND—

Country Produce Generally.

Account sales promptly rendered and satisfaction guaranteed. Liberal advances made on consignments, and purchases made in this market at lowest rates for account my friends. 5-3

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Cuffs $1 a dozen; all else low.

B. T. WALSH,

13 St. Charles street.

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Cuffs $1 a dozen; all else low.

B. T. WALSH,

13 St. Charles street.

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Cuffs $1 a dozen; all else low.

B. T. WALSH,

13 St. Charles street.

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Cuffs $1 a dozen; all else low.

B. T. WALSH,

13 St. Charles street.

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Cuffs $1 a dozen; all else low.

B. T. WALSH,

13 St. Charles street.

SHIRTS

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST

STOCK IN NEW ORLEANS.

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

The new stock of Summer Underwear in

Store. An elegant assortment of

Good Shirts as Low as 75c; Under-shirts

40c; Drawers 50c; Collars $1 a dozen;

Clouds.

[Ethel de Fontblaque, in Tinsley's (London)

Magazine.]

We had quarrels, lovers' quarrels.

In our sunny past;

But our trust was deep and tender,

So they could not last.

Once—how well I can remember!

All one radiant day.

We stood apart in silence,

Turning hearts away.

When the evening came—those evenings

That were all so bright,

Lighting up the hours of absence

With their happy light,

Then you came and sat beside me

In your old fond way,

Took my hand and strove to reason—

But I turned away.

And you pleaded, pleaded firmly,

In your bitter pain,

Pouring forth a wealth of love-words

On my heart like rain.

Still I would not turn, and coldly

Bade you to depart,

Though your tender words were stirring

Deeply in my heart.

But you would not leave me, urging

All your loving past;

Then my foolish pride forsook me,

And I turned at last—

Turned to find you fondly waiting;

Full of love and fears;

Gladly in your arms you clasped me,

Smiling midst my tears.

That was long ago, I fancy;

Things are altered now

You and I are cold and parted,

Hardly knowing how.

Meeting sometimes, calmly conscious

Of our presence here,

Proud eyes fixed and unrelenting

That were once so dear.

Clasping hands, but clasping coldly,

With a distant air,

And a knowledge of estrangement,

Like a weight of care.

If they told me you were dead,

dear,

In your cold young grave,

I could bear my sorrow nobly,

Loving still and brave;

Looking up to heaven, conscious

That you loved me there,

Sending down a blessing for me

Through the starry air.

But this death in life, this breaking

Of the old sweet bond,

And this severance of friendship

Once so strong and fond;

This I cannot bear; the sorrow

Weights upon my heart.

Must our lives flow on divided?

Must we stand apart?

A Just Tribute to the Negro

as a Laborer and Freeman.

THE RACE THE PICAYUNE, DEMO-

CRAT AND PAPERS OF THAT

CLASS WOULD HAVE DRIVEN

FROM THE SOUTH BY

PERSECUTION.

Never was the contrast between free labour and slave labour as regards industrial results more emphatically exemplified than it has been in the social history of the maintained we must be prepared to see the industrial ruin of the South.

These arguments were pointed by references to Jamaica and other

West Indian islands where emancipa-tion, however guarded, was followed by financial collapse. The prophecies thus uttered were put to a severe test. The slaves were emancipated in what all would consider the most perilous method—that is suddenly and in the middle of a fierce civil contest provoked by the controversy as to their rights.

When the war was over the landowners of the South found themselves stripped of capital, deprived of political power, crushed by the failure of their cause, and surrounded by millions of freedmen, who were yesterday their dependants.

Thus free labour in essaying to emulate the slave labour of the period before the war had everything against it. Yet no more than seven years had elapsed from the close of the contest when the annual yield of cotton equalled that of the highest year preceding it, and the South had through free labour recovered its old position. The more recent statistics just published take a larger sweep and are more striking. For ten years before the war, that is from 1852 to 1861, both inclusive, the slave

South raised, in round numbers, thirty-five millions of bales.

For the last ten years the free

South has raised forty one million and a half.

These figures speak for the social condition of the South with an evidence no other evidence can command. We sometimes hear of negroes flying to Kansas because they are badly treated, of the Ku-

Klux-Klan murdering black men, of parishes "bull-dozed," or of State elections carried by violence.

Such isolated stories may or may not be true, but the broad facts remain that during the last ten years the liberated negroes have, on the whole, worked with industry and success. Nor is their conduct alone attested by the statistics. A prosperous cotton industry testifies to the application of capi-

The Louisianian.

T. D. S. TUCKER,
J. D. KENNEDY, Editors.

THURSDAY, DEC. 25, 1879.

All letters on business and communications should be addressed to the "LOUISIANIAN, 614 CAMP STREET."

No notice taken of anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Rejected communications cannot be returned, neither can we take to preserve manuscripts.

The proprietor of this paper will not be responsible for the sentiments of communications.

The LOUISIANIAN can be had at the following well known news dealers: Ellis—opposite Postoffice. Staub—corner Canal and Exchange Al.

AGENTS.

JAMES L. DAVIS, New Orleans.
CHAS. ROY-MONROE, Iberville.
Geo. W. LINGGTON, Assumption.
D. C. L., Ouachita.
J. S. HINTON, Indiana.
Wm. H. WARD, Kentucky.
FORT J. HARRIS, Philadelphia, Pa.
S. W. SMITH, Richmond.
R. W. FITZGERALD, Natchez, Miss.

With this issue we replace the name of our late Associated Editor at the head of our columns. As is well known, Mr. Kennedy left us at the time in obedience to the wishes of the Republican party which had called him to assume a position on its ticket in the late election as one of the standard bearers. Having done yeoman service in the contest just closed, he comes back to us full of buoyant aspirations for the future of his party, race and the LOUISIANIAN. The readers of the LOUISIANIAN, no less than ourselves, extend him a hearty welcome.

Personals.

General T. Morris Chester has arrived. Mrs. Chester is still in Harrisburg.

Wm. V. Turner, Esq., Editor of the North Carolina Republican, has been visiting Washington.

Mrs. Stewart, the mother of Gov. Pinchback arrived Monday morning from Sidney, Ohio.

Our young friend, J. I. Rogers has been elected a Justice of the Peace in Thibodaux by two majority.

Mr. Joseph T. Settle, a prominent colored lawyer of Parola Co., Miss., passed through Louisville recently en route to Washington.

Mrs. H. G. Barbour and her adopted daughter, Miss Sarah F. Miller, of Nashville, Tenn., are in the city, the guests of Mrs. Alex. J. Kenner.

Mr. Marshall J. Simms is making a thorough canvass of North Louisiana in the interest of Mr. T. B. Stamps as a forwarding and commission merchant.

Senator Bruce has introduced a bill to provide for the investment of certain unclaimed pay and bounty moneys now in the Treasury, and to facilitate and encourage the education of the colored race.

An old colored man named Dan Webster, a celebrated character, about whom so much has been said and written died recently in Chicago, and left a fortune estimated at 100,000 dollars. He married a white woman about 10 days ago, having discarded his colored wife and children.

A Washington special to the Chicago Inter-Ocean says:

EX-GOVERNOR PINCHBACK, who came here to attend the meeting of the National Republican Committee, is understood to be an applicant for the position of Surveyor of the port of New Orleans, soon to be made vacant by the expiration of the commission of J. Madison Wells. Mr. Pinchback has had interviews with the President and the Secretary of the Treasury on the subject, and his friends appear to be confident that he will receive the appointment.

How many of us will be here this time next year?

A Merry Christmas to All!

Once again the reputed birthday of the Savior of men beams on us and demands our universal acclaim. The cares and annoyances of daily life must for the nonce give way to the festivities due to a celebration of the day which first announced a new life to wretched man, cleared away the impenetrable night of his hopeless future and raised him to the grand hopes and elevated aspirations of a sweet bye and bye. If the natal day of princes who are distinguished above the rest of their fellow mortals only by the willing homage and obedience paid to their authority is ushered in by the merry manifestations which attest the delightful emotions of men, we can do no less to proclaim our joyous praises, in honor of Him who is the Sovereign Lord of our common humanity, on the day which brought Him to the world. Life is short; its rugged duties and stern responsibilities wear too heavily on the system; they need then to be checked and tempered once in a while by an abandon to the flow of buoyant feelings. Muscle and brain, however tough and powerful, need relaxation, and a more hallowed day than Christmas never comes in the year when we may unbend our energies and render reverence at one and the same time.

But let our enjoyment be rational. If we eat, drink and be merry, let us be mindful that no day however devoted to pleasures gives license for the violation of the rules of good behavior. The solidly merry fellow is he whose fun does not step beyond the line of gentility and good breeding. With a due observance of the rules of propriety, we say to one and all of our readers—Merry Christmas to All!

Retributive Justice.

Rapidly the hand of justice is laying its heavy and impartial weight on the politics of the American people in punishment of the wrongs they have shamefully meted and suffered to be meted out to the Negro, since he became a voter. The magnificent and abstract ideas which form the basis of the National Constitution giving it in practice the health and vigor which place the civil and political liberties of this country in the front rank of those of other nationalities have been so often and grossly outraged in their application to the Negro, that the country to-day witnesses the same fell spirit exercised for the first time in a Northern State and that too in New England, with a passing shrug of the shoulder or with an indifferent emotion at the best. From the day the Negro became clothed with the full right of citizenship, the spirit of our institutions embraced him in the same fold in common with his white partner, and any deviation from this standing is doing violence to principles which are bound to assert themselves by forcible means if need be. For the Republicans of Maine, or of any Northern State, subjected to the tyrannical methods which we have experienced in the South for years, we have no sympathy. We regret for the Nation however that the tendency to the overthrow of its liberties, as a natural result of its long cherished indifference to the wrong inflicted on a weak class in the body politic, has at last risen up to alarming proportions. But if the danger will be heeded in time and the South be again brought to do full justice to all its advanced ideas of the Constitution, it is possible that the ship of State may yet tack aside into a safe course and finally moor at the haven of safety.

Our Legislature under the new Constitution will meet on January 12th.

The singing this morning at St. Phillips P. E. Church will be of a high order.

The weather is remarkable for this season of the year. Overcoats are absolutely uncomfortable during the day.

To Madison Again.

Just previous to and after the election, there were rumors of gross and unnecessary outrages in the Parish of Madison. Unwilling to do injustice to the Democrats of that parish upon merely reports, we studiously kept silent till the worst was confirmed by a letter from one of the most intelligent colored men of that parish, though living at that time as a refugee across the river in Vicksburg. Deeming his deliberate statements on paper, made at the time, to be founded on the truth, we published them as news and commented on the same with becoming severity. A few days later, Mr. Price the person above referred to, stated through the Associated Press that everything was lovely in Madison during the election. This was justly paraded by the Democratic press as a vindication of their party victory in a parish which had always been up to hilt period Republican. Again, a few days later, in a private letter to us, bearing date of Dec 8th., Mr. Price says: "Things are not quite settled, as many of the people are determined to move away. As soon as matters will permit, I will write you something for publication. I dare not do so now." Some Democrats of that parish who know us personally to be fair and candid in all our relations, especially in politics, have written us, expressing a desire that we should correct the bad name the LOUISIANIAN has given their party and parish; that Peck and Brown, two of the three colored men said to have been murdered are still in the flesh and breathing soundly in that flesh, etc. In every essential particular in which we may have been misinformed and were accordingly led to misrepresent the facts in Madison Parish, we are willing to stand corrected. We would neither for party, nor for any other consideration, willfully wrong any section of a State, the whole of which is suffering badly enough under a load of ugly charges. But we submit in all candor, if from the lights which were then before us from Mr. Price we could have said less? We reprobated what we believed were wrongs which had been inflicted on a harmless people, and our pen would have been untrue to its impulse and our sympathy for suffering humanity stifled had we spoken in milder terms. But the glaring fact remains after all, outside of the very questionable manner in which Madison was made to return a Democratic majority, that an industrious and worthy colored leader—Armstrong—was literally riddled to death, Sunday before the election, and his body thrown into the river, a fact attested by a Democratic journal, the Carroll Conservative.

Let the law and order loving people of Louisiana for once make up their minds to stem this tide of lawlessness, and put it down, if need be, by force, and thus make it impossible that any stories of depredations in our State should be believed. Radical and Republican papers would not then have to quarrel after every election.

WOMANLY MODESTY.

Man loves the mysterious. A cloudless sky and a full blown rose, leave him unmoved; but the violet which hides its blushing beauties behind the bush, and the moon when emerging from behind a cloud, are to him sources of inspiration and of pleasure. Modesty is to merit what shade is to a figure in painting—it gives boldness and prominence. Nothing adds more to female beauty than modesty. It sheds around the countenance a halo of light which is borrowed from virtue. Botanists have given the rose hue which tinges the cup of the white roses the name of "maiden blush." This pure and delicate hue is the only paint Christian virtue should use. It is the richest ornament. A woman without modesty is like a faded flower diffusing an unwholesome odor, which the prudent gardener will throw from him. Her destiny is melancholy, for it terminates in shame and repentance. Beauty passes like the flower of the alba, which bloom and die in a few hours; but modesty gives the female charms which supply the place of the transitory freshness of youth. —Ex.

Who Will Make a Wife?

Many engagements have been lately announced, chiefly in uptown circles. In the remarks we are about to submit we would not be understood as referring directly or otherwise to any of these parties; quite to the contrary, so far as our acquaintance goes, we are inclined to believe that should the parties ever consummate their pledges at the altar, they would all find themselves congenially mated; at least such is our hope and wish. But it is of the tests by which a girl's fitness for the honored position of a wife is to be judged, we desire to say a word. Of course there breathes not the girl who has not been endowed by nature with conceit enough to believe that she can make as good a wife as the best that moves in her social circle. She would indignantly repel the intimation that she will be a shrew, termagant, or a slow death to the man who will be so unlucky as to give her his name. Moreover there is no period of her life which is more rosy with the coloring of her imagination as when she pictures the day she will forsake even the strong ties of home and its associations and cling lovingly around the arm of some stout manly form. All this is natural and in place, but it is far from showing that a girl will be more than a mere social partner for some man. The man who will take the pains to observe a little closely the habits of a girl in the place where she appears most natural—at home, can seldom fail to put a proper estimate on her. If she is dutiful to her parents she gives the highest proof of the best elements of wisdom in her composition, for the love and respect which is paid to the source where it is most due by nature and association in one relation will as readily and freely be given in another of a tender tie. The girl who, despite the jeering criticism of her mates about her "dowdiness" or odd appearance, because she dresses according to the limited means of her parents; who does not think that a new bonnet, or the latest fashion in head-gear makes the lady, who cares less about how she is to catch a beau than she studies how to make home a paradise is just the sort of a being that can be a strong support to a husband in the day when the kicks of fortune press him to earth. The girl (and such an instance we know), who shoulders the care of her orphan and younger sisters, buffeting meanwhile, the sneaking knocks of the world, at personal sacrifice to her attraction and womanly pride for personal adornment, gallantly brings them up to years of maiden sweetness, stainless and honorable, is an angel who will bestow unbounded happiness on the man who will call her to the partnership of his life work. In a word, the girl who has the nobility of soul to rise above the weighty trammels of her surroundings and fulfil the mission of her sex as the inspiring source of our highest social happiness, is the angel which in a measure atones for the sin of Eve in Eden, and whose wifehood the man of sense will eagerly seek.

The press of business in the Custom House has compelled Gen. Badger to ask for more men. The receipts for custom duties last exceeded by $73,000 the largest since the war.

It is to be hoped the Auxiliary Sanitary Committee will take some steps to give this city a thorough cleaning, so as to prevent a recurrence of the yellow fever next summer.

Fifteen vessels cleared Saturday, eight of which were steamers. They carried cargoes, mostly cotton valued at 3,000,000 dollars. Who says business is not increasing?

Cotton is still king. Steamer after steamer continues to arrive with the fleecy staple. The levee presents a lively and animated appearance.

A few murders and suicides since our last issue.

Items of Interest.

—Virginia has 685 colored schools and 415 colored teachers.

—The Thibodaux Sentinel doesn't seem to like our views on the exodus. We have shed no tears yet.

—The Senate has appointed a committee of five to investigate the causes of the exodus. God grant they may not come down here.

—The Argus claims to have secured in the short space of four weeks, 816 monthly subscribers and over 250 advertisements.

—Isn't it about time for the "visiting statesmen" to take a little trip down to Augusta, in the State of Maine? To be sure, they can hardly expect to be entertained there with quadrone balls, such as they had at New Orleans, but they can get fresh fried codfish to their hearts' content, and more "frand" than the Pelicans ever thought of. Let the v. s. delegation go to Maine. There hasn't been such an opening for them in some time.—Ex.

A sad misfortune lately befel a New Orleans judge. It is related of him that, as he was riding in the cars, from a single glance at the countenance of a lady at his side, he imagined that he knew her, and ventured to remark that the day was pleasant. She only answered "Yes." "Why do you wear a veil?" "Lest I attract gentlemen." "It is the province of gentlemen to admire," replied the gallant man of law. "Not when they are married." "But I am not." "Indeed!" "Oh, no; I'm a bachelor." The lady quietly removed her veil, disclosing to the astonished magistrate the face of his mother-in-law. He has been a raving maniac ever since.

On the 18th inst., the Atlanta Baptist Seminary was dedicated at Atlanta. It is for the education of colored Ministers and teachers, about 70 Negro hating residents in the locality where it is situated protested against its erection on the ground that a "Negro seminary was a nuisance." On the same day Mr. Ben. Hill, of Ga., was telling the country how well the Negroes were being treated in his State—how they were being educated and how fast they were accumulating property. He forgot to tell his brother Senators that his constituents thought that a "Negro seminary was a nuisance," and also that the number of colored people in Georgia enrolled in schools is less in proportion to the school population than in any of the recent slave States, save Arkansas.—Ex.

Here and There.

—The English army is experiencing a tough time of it in Afghanistan.

—Several of the "boys" in the Granite Building struck the lottery the other—

—The Russian press is very violent in its criticisms on affairs in Afghanistan.

—The Republicans of Maine had a great indignation meeting at Augusta on Saturday.

—The English War Office has concluded to send reinforcement to the army in Afghanistan.

—The Duchess of Marlborough has headed a movement for the suffering poor of Ireland.

—Even the English Courts are not infallible. A writ of error has been granted in the case of the Tichborne claimant.

—The widow and mother of the late Sir Louis Cavagnari, English Resident at Cabul, have been pensioned by the British government.

—The Spanish Premier has forbidden the military demonstration of thanks projected by the Murcian relief committee to France for its aid to the overflowed sufferers.

—Sir Stafford Northcote, the English Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech at a conservative demonstration at Leeds, defended the policy of the Ministry at home and in Ireland, and inveighed strongly against the sentiments of Messrs. Bright and Potter at the banquet tendered the latter.

SENATOR KELLOGG.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Senator Sanbury, the Chairman of the Committee on Elections, said to-day that no action had been taken in the case of Mr. Kellogg since the return of the sub-committee from New Orleans, and that the case would not be taken up till after the recess. He said it was too important a case to be acted on without care and deliberation, and that would probably be some time before the committee reached a conclusion: To-day Governor Kellogg addressed a letter to Mr. Sanbury as Chairman of the committee, setting forth the various facts which he expected to prove and the various allegations which he expected to disprove, and submitting a list of additional witnesses, whom he requested to be summoned before the committee. If this request of Mr. Kellogg be granted, it will have the effect to prolong the investigation. From what can be learned of the Democratic intentions, there may not be much opposition to this, as it is not believed that, in any event, the case will be finally acted on by the Senate during the present session of Congress. If, after the fall elections, the Democratic hold on the Senate looks precarious, Mr. Kellogg will doubtless be bounced, but if the Democrats are assured of safe control after 1881 he may not be disturbed.—Inter-Ocean.

—Attend divine service to-day.

—The entertainment last evening at Exposition Hall was a great success.

—Canal St has been almost unpassable. Parents buying Christmas toys and presents from morning until night.

L. A. GOBRIGHT,

Solicitor of Claims,

Is prepared to attend to Pension and Bounty cases of Colored Soldiers, and any other business pertaining to them, or to any parties whover.

Address, L. A. GOBRIGHT, Washington, D. C. He refers to Mr. Pinchback, Gen. Anderson, Ex-Governor Wells and U. S. Attorney Beckwith. dec 25 79.

JOHN KUGLER,

Merchant Tailor

145.....COMMON STREET.....145

NEW ORLEANS.

Cleaning and Repairing neatly done.

THE PROGRESS SHAVING SALOON,

No. 97 Rampart, near St. Louis street. Branch of the Big Casino Saloon, No. 7 Canal street.

J. F. JAILLIOT, Proprietor.

Razors concaved and sharpened. All orders from the country solicited. 9-27

FRUIT TREES.

Apple, Pear, Peach, Plum, Quince, Crab, etc. STOCKS GRAFTS, Apple, Cherry, Crab, Pear, etc. EVERGREENS, Shade Trees, Shrubs, Fruit and Flower Plants. HEDGE PLANTS, Osage, Buckthorn, etc. GREEN HOUSE PLANTS, Splendid Novelties, Bees, Verbenas, Carnations, etc. For NEW CATALOGUES OF THE BLOOMINGTON (PHENIX) NURSERY, post free, address WM. P. BAIRD, (Trustee) Box 1, BLOOMINGTON, ILLINOIS. jan 9-41

FIRST CLASS BOARD, by the Day.

Week or Month, 1512 L street N. W. Washington, D. C. Mrs. S. D. REVELL, Proprietress. 11-29

L. BONQUOIS.

CHAS. PAUL

BONQUOIS &amp; PAUL,

Boot and Shoe-Makers,

UNDER THE

ST. CHARLES HOTEL,

Near Common Street, New Orleans. feb 10

AGENTS WANTED to introduce into every county in the South the HISTORY OF THE BIBLE. The best work to sell that has ever been published. Splendid premium to every subscriber. For circulars and terms apply at once to "The Henry Hill Publishing Co., 41, 43 and 45 Rhetick street, Norwich, Ct.

1880.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

This periodical has always, by its able and scholarly discussions of the questions of the day, as well as by its illustrations—which are prepared by the best artists—exerted a most powerful and beneficial influence upon the public mind.

The weight of its influence will always be found on the side of morality, enlightenment, and refinement.

The Volumes of the WEEKLY begin with the first number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to commence with the number next after the receipt of order.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

Harper's Magazine, one year..... $4 00
Harper's Weekly, one year..... 4 00
Harper's Bazar, one year..... 4 00
The THREE above named publications, one year..... 10 00
Any TWO above named, one year..... 7 00
Harper's Young People, one year..... 1 50

Postage Free to all subscribers in the United States or Canada.

The Annual Volumes of HARPER'S WEEKLY, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by mail, postage paid, or by express free of expense (provided the freight does not exceed one dollar per volume,) for $7 00 each. A complete Set, comprising Twenty-three Volumes, at on receipt of cash at the rate of $5 25 per volume, freight at expense of purchaser.

Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, postage, on receipt of $1 00 each.

Remittances should be made by Post-Office Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

Newspapers are not to copy this advertisement without the express order of HARPER & BROTHERS.

Address HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

THE BEST PAPER! TRY IT!!

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

35th YEAR.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is a large First-Class Weekly Newspaper of Sixteen Pages, printed in the most beautiful style, profusely illustrated with splendid engravings, representing the newest Inventions and the most recent advances in Arts and Sciences; including New and Interesting Facts in Agriculture, Horticulture, the Home, Health, Medical Progress, Social Science, Natural History, Geology, Astronomy. The most valuable practical papers, by eminent writers in all departments of Science, will be found in the Scientific American:

Terms, $3.00 per year, $1.00 half year, which includes postage. Discount to Agents. Single copies, ten cents. Sold by all News-dealers. Remitt by Postal order to MUNN & Co., Publishers, 37 Park Row, New York.

PATENTS. In connection with the Scientific American, Messrs. MUNN & Co. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, have had 35 years experience, and now have the largest establishment in the world. Patents are obtained on the best terms. A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all Inventions patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. For the immense circulation thus given, public attention is directed to the merits of the new patent, and sales or introduction often easily effected.

Any person who has made a new discovery or invention, can ascertain, free of charge, whether a patent can probably be obtained, by writing to MUNN & Co. We also send free our Hand Book about the Patent Laws, Patents, Caveats, Trade-Marks, their costs, and how procured, with hints for procuring advances on inventions. Address for the Paper, or concerning Patents:

MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, New York. Branch Office, cor. F & 7th Sts. Washington, D. C.

NEW ORLEANS INSURANCE CO.

Cor. Camp and Canal streets.

Paid Capital - - - $500,000 00
Assets at their market value - - - 619,895 46

DIRECTORS:

A. Schreiber, Charles Lapitte,
A. Carriere, Charles J. Leeds,
H. Gally, D. Fagot,
W. A. Bell, Charles E. Schmidt,
P. Pontz, Ernest Merrill,
J. Aldige, Jules Tuyaes,
J. W. HINCKES, Secretary.

LITERARY NOTICE.—The "Earl of Mayfield" has had a remarkable success. Its publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, have already issued the fourth edition. The leading papers speak of it in terms of the highest praise, and it has the appreciation of the author could have anticipated. It is a decidedly popular romance. For sale by all booksellers.

The Louisianian.

J. M. VANCE, Jr., Editor.

THURSDAY, DEC 25, 1879.

A Merry Christmas!

Mr. William R. Boyd of Houma, will spend the holidays in the city.

This is just the weather for the ladies to look their best, delightfully Spring like, made pleasant by the balmy breezes of our sunny land.

What is more "inspiring" than to see a sweet dimple cheek, diffused with roses, beneath the fashionable Derby!

This is undoubtedly the year for engagements, if only to engage and nothing more; it has become a regular epidemic. Up above Melpomene St., it is reported as being very bad.

The mythical "Santa Claus" made glad many a little heart to day. The old chimney place unconsciously decorated with the tiny stockings, brightened the eyes of the little ones with their well laden treasures of Christmas "gifts."

Conventional black is on the cards for New Year's day. A reward is offered for the man in light; loud colors are played out; and the "young 'un" who wants to live and see the Carnival, will take warning, while yet there is time.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Herbert M. Clarke, son of Prof. Peter H. Clarke of Cincinnati, and Prof. Montgomery of Alcorn university. The gentlemen are on a visit to our city and propose to spend the holidays among us.

To-morrow night the "Ladies Benevolent Association" will have an anniversary supper at the residence of Mrs. Phillis Hopkins on Dryades St. It promises to be a grand affair. Covers will be laid for seventy five. Thanks for compliment.

Well! Pinafore is upon us, this time the "Jaws" hold the board. When will this poor afflicted community get a surcease of sorrow? Now comes the "hibernating germ," then the annual investigation committee, and now comes—Well! did you ever!

The entertainment given by the Daughters of Ruth on last night at the Exposition Hall, was an exceedingly successful and enjoyable affair. The large hall was crowded and everything passed off pleasantly. Thanks, genial friend E. J. Holmes, Esq., M. V. P. and Worthy Scribe, for kind favors.

"Christmas comes but once a year," was the first scream that reached our ears on the early morn, and as we turned to scrutinize the arrival, he was all gathered up in one unsteady heap preparing for a break, we recognized the "plug" and a comrade close by softly remembered "the same old drunk."

Now is the time for young manhood to come courageously to the front. Next year the "girls" will have their own way, and there they'll take you whether you will or no. It's better, in the opinion of those who have suffered, to willingly take up the burden, than to have it thrust upon you. Several have already yielded to the stringent demand of the times.

There seems to be no end to amusements. Balls, soirees, receptions and the like, are crowding thick and fast upon us. This season promises from present indications to be the gayest of the gay. To-night there will be a ball at the Exposition, Globe, Violet, Economy, and Frances Amis hall, a dinner party on St. Andrew St., and several private entertainments in the lower and upper portions of the city.

A Lady's Response to the Toast of "The Men."

Mrs. Dunway, of the New Northwest, at a literary reunion, at Salem, Oregon, "toasted" the gentlemen as follows:

"God bless 'em. They halve our joys; they double our sorrows; they treble our expenses; they quadruple our cares; they excite our magnanimity; they increase our self-respect; they awake our enthusiasm; they arouse our affections; they control our property and out-maneuvre us in everything. This would be a very dreary world without 'em. In fact, I may say, without prospect of successful contradiction, that without 'em it would not be much of a world anyhow. We love 'em, and the dear beings can't help it; we control 'em and the precious fellows don't know it."

As husbands, they are always convenient, though not always on hand; as beaux, they are by no means "matchless." They are most agreeable visitors; they are handy at State fairs and indispensable at oyster saloons. They are splendid as escorts for some other fellow's wife or sister, and as friends they are better than women. As our fathers, they are inexpressibly grand. A man may be a failure in business, a wreck in constitution, not enough to boast of as a beauty, nothing to speak of as a wit, less than nothing as a legislator for woman's rights, and even not very brilliant as a member of the press; but if he is our father we overlook his short comings and cover his peccadilloes with the divine mantle of charity. Then, as our husbands, how we love to parade them as paragons! In the sublime language of the inspired poet: "We'll lie for them, We'll cry for them, And if we could we'd fly for them. We'd anything but die for them."

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL'S UNIFORM.—Col. Villiers found the Prince Imperial's uniform, or at least an agent sent by him succeeded in doing so for him. Klaus, the agent, was brought up in a Buer family and speaks Dutch fluently. Klaus went to the neighborhood of the kraal where the Prince was killed. Here he discovered that Xabango, the man who slew him, had been killed at Ulundi. He was of the Bonambi regiment. Klaus had some difficulty in discovering the relatives of Xabango, who had the uniform of the Prince, but by various means succeeded in finding the different parts of the uniform in different kraals. He brought a patrol jacket, riding breeches, leather waistcoat, shirt, belt, revolver and an ammunition pouch with twenty-one rounds in it, and a small bag with some coins. All the clothes, except the breeches, were pierced in front with numerous assegai holes. The revolver is smashed. It appears he was wounded first by an assegai thrown from a distance of about ten yards. He emptied his revolver at his enemies, who closed to quickly too low him to reload, so he shied the revolver at his nearest assailant and drew his sword to defend himself. The Prince's watch has not yet been discovered. The Zulus deny ever having seen it. There can be no doubt about the identity of the uniform, except the shirt, which I believe belonged to one of the escort. Klaus interviewed one of the party who attacked the Prince, and it is wonderful how any of the white men escaped at all. The Zulus discovered them approaching long before they had reached the kraal. Before they had off-saddled the Prince and his party was hemmed in on two sides and affairs were brought to a climax by the Basuto discovering the Zulus in the long grass. Had it not been for this none would have escaped. The Zulu stated that the Prince's horse bolted and broke away as he was trying to mount.—Natal Mercury.

THE FIREMEN'S INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.

I. N. MARKS, President.
E. PRUDHOMME, Vice President.
R. H. BENNETT, Secretary.
JAS. BOYCE, Inspector.
W. E. RODDY, Agent.

Office, Cor. Camp and Gravier Streets.
Represents the Fire Association of Philadelphia.

GREAT JACKSON ROUTE—NEW ORLEANS, ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO RAILROAD LINES.
DOUBLE DAILY THROUGH TRAINS.
On and after Sept. 22, 1879, Trains will depart and arrive as follows, from Caliope street depot:

DEPART.
Express No. 1..... 5:15 p. m.
Mixed No. 3..... 7:00 a. m.
Express No. 2..... 7:40 a. m.
Mixed No. 4..... 7:36 p. m.
No. 1 and 2 run daily, 3 and 4 daily, except Sunday.

Pullman Palace Sleepers through without change to Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, and for St. Louis a Sleeper is attached at Milan, Tenn., enabling passengers to go through without leaving the train. Only one change to New York and Eastern cities.

Accommodation trains between New Orleans and McComb City:
Leave New Orleans at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, and 7 a. m. Sunday.
Arrive at New Orleans at 9:20 a. m. Sunday, and 10 p. m. Monday.
This is the only line running double daily through trains to and from all points North and East.
Improved sleeping and reclining chair cars to Vicksburg daily, without change.
Tickets for sale and information given at 22 Camp street, corner Common.

REDUCED RATES.
On and after THURSDAY, April 10, this line will make the following rates to suit the times:

To Boston.....$27 60
To New York..... 36 00
To Philadelphia..... 35 00
To Baltimore..... 34 00
To Washington..... 34 10
To Albany..... 35 60
To Buffalo..... 32 00
To Pittsburgh..... 31 10
To Cleveland..... 30 00
Travel by this old and favorite route, which gives you low rates and the quickest time to New York and all Northern and Eastern cities.
A. D. SHELTON Agent.
F. CHANDLER, General Manager.

LOUIS BUSH, JOHN LEVERT, REUBEN G. of Lafourche, of Iberville, of Orleans

BUSH & LEVERT,

COTTON AND SUGAR

FACTORS,

No. 31 Perdido Street,

Lock Box 2047 — NEW ORLEANS

WALTON, BARAGER & CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

—AND—

DEALER IN TEAS,

NEW YORK

PHILIP A. WALTON, JR.

CELESTINE F. BARAGER.

225 BULKLEY.

CRESCENT CITY SHAVING AND

HAIR-DRESSING SALOON BY

G. T. REID,

119.....POLYMNIA STREET.....119

Hair-cutting a specialty. Citizens will always receive a welcome and go away

satisfied. Strangers will do well to give us a call. 8-10-lm

PIERRE BOYER,

UNDERTAKER,

114 Rampart, bet. St. Louis and Tou-

louse streets.

Carriages always ready for Balls, Parties, and all other purposes on the most

Reasonable Terms. 8-10-lm

WILLIAM EPPS,

(Successor to Louis Murr)

—DEALER IN—

WATCHES AND FINE JEWELRY,

137 Royal street, NEW ORLEANS.

Watches and Jewelry promptly repair-

ed. Also, Ear Piercing.

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR OLD GOLD AND SILVER

7-24-lm

F. A. GONZALES & BRO.

IMPORTERS OF

HAVANA CIGARS,

Cor. Camp and Common Sts.,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

A. J. GIURANOVICH,

Jeweler & Diamond Setter,

For the last 9 years at

Mr. I. C. Levi's, 198 Canal street.

121.....ROYAL STREET.....121

Bet. St. Louis and Toulouse,

7-24-lm NEW ORLEANS.

THE PEOPLE'S TRUE FRIEND.

COLLINS' SALVE

IS THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY THAT WILL SPEEDILY CURE

ERYSIPELAS, SYPHILIS CANCERS,

SCALD-HEAD, TETTER-WORM,

GANGRENE, WHITE SWELLING, AND ALL ERUPTIVE DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Experimenting upon himself the Manufacturer of this powerful salve has recently discovered that it will also cure the worst kind of a BUNION and remove a deep-rooted CORN in five or six days.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

From 50 cents to $2.00 will purchase enough of this excellent SALVE, with directions and guarantee, to cure the worst of the above mentioned diseases without incurring the least pain upon the patient. Send for trial boxes. Only 25 cents. For sale at present only by our agent,

J. S. CLANCY,
Valmont between Live Oak and Laurel,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

N. B.—Persons sending for COLLINS' SALVE should be careful to state for what it is to be used, and of how long the reign of the disease, in order that they may receive the proper directions to effect a sure and speedy cure. 11-22

THE WEEKLY

L O O O U U I I S S S I I A N N I I A N N N
L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N
L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N
L L L O O O U U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N

ADVOCATING THE RIGHTS OF MEN,

And representing, especially, the colored citizen, the LOUISIANIAN will maintain, as a fundamental principle, the perfect equality of all citizens, without regard to race or color.

OUR AIM

Shall be to foster kindly relations between the races, and to establish a more mutual respect for each other as the very first essential to the future peace and prosperity of our State and the South.

We enter upon our eighth year pledged to the advocacy of the

POLICY

that has governed the LOUISIANIAN from the beginning.

The necessity of a closer intercourse between the two classes—the colored and white people of our State—we rejoice to know, is fast becoming manifest; and, the recent emancipation of our people from the domination of political task-masters renders this desideratum possible.

HARMONY AND MODERATION

among all classes and between all interests; kindness and forbearance fostered where malignity and resentment reigned, and a common service of all the people will elevate our loved State to an enviable and rightful position among her sisters in the development of her boundless resources and matchless advantages.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM,

The LOUISIANIAN offers rare advantages to the merchant and business man. Our large and weekly increasing circulation within the State, and throughout the country, renders the service of our columns particularly desirable.

EDUCATION.

A special feature of our paper will be its educational column, relating to matters affecting our common school system, the education of our youth, and enlightenment of the masses.

FINAL

With this statement of our purpose and laudable endeavor, we hope we shall receive, as we shall always strive to merit, commendation and support. Identify with every interest of our State, proud of its history and its advantages, we shall untiringly work in its behalf; counting no exertion too great or services too onerous to command and insure success.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:

ONE YEAR.....$2 00
SIX MONTHS..... 1 00
THREE MONTHS..... 75
SINGLE COPIES..... 5

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion..... 75
Yearly advertisements taken at reduced rates. 2 50
SIX MONTHS..... 3 00
THREE MONTHS..... 2 00
ONE COLUMN Three Months..... 30 00
Six Months..... 30 00
Twelve Months..... 40 00

OFFICE—644 CAMP STREET,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

J. L. MCCLURE. J. S. MCCLURE.

McCLURE.

(Successor to ALBERT WANGENHEIM)

A R R R T T T T S S S T T T
A A R R T T T T S S S T T T
A A R R T T T T S S S T T T

—AND—

PHOTOGRAPHER,

131.....POIRAS ST.....131

NEW ORLEANS.

Photographs of every description, size style taken and finished in a superior manner.

A specialty made of copying and enlarging small defective pictures and finishing them equal to pictures from life, in COLORES, CRAYON AND INDIA INK. The largest sky-light, and best facilities in the city, for taking "supra." 11-30 ly

A WEEK in your own town, and no capital risked. You can give the business a trial without expense. The best opportunity ever offered for those willing to work. You should try nothing else until you see for yourself what you can do at the business we offer. No room to explain here. You can devote all your time or only your spare time to the business, and make great pay for every hour that you work. Women make as much as men. Send for special private terms and particulars, which we mail free. $5 outfit free. Don't complain of hard times while you have such a chance. Address H. HALLET & CO., Portland, Maine. 6-21

THE INTER-OCEAN.

CHIEF AMONG STALWARTS.

FOR 1880.

The Leading REPUBLICAN Newspaper,

WEEKLY, $1.15. SEMI-WEEKLY, $2.50. DAILY, $10.00

IN NEWS-GETTING,

EDITORIAL ABILITY,

CORRESPONDENCE,

And everything that goes to make

First-Class Newspaper,

The Inter-Ocean Has No Superior.

THE DAILY INTER-OCEAN

Is the Cheapest Morning Paper published in Chicago.

The LODGES DEPARTMENT in which is published the latest news of the Secret Orders, is a valuable feature.

THE

SEMI-WEEKLY INTER-OCEAN

Is published each Monday and Thursday, and contains a compendium of the news of the world.

An Educational Department

Has been added to this edition of the paper, and is very highly spoken of by the School Superintendents and Teachers. It is intended to fill a want long felt by persons interested in our Schools.

THE WEEKLY INTER-OCEAN

Has the Largest circulation of any Political Newspaper in the United States. It is a paper for the people and costs only $1.15, Postage Paid.

The Agricultural and Commercial Departments

are ably and carefully conducted, and are as reliable as any published in the country.

"OUR CURIOSITY SHOP,"

WOMAN'S KINGDOM, AND

THE HOME DEPARTMENT

Will continue Leading and Interesting Features.

AS A POLITICAL, LITERARY,

AND

1880

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

This popular periodical is pre-eminently a journal for the household.

Every Number furnishes the latest information in regard to fashions in dress and ornament, the newest and most approved patterns, with descriptive articles derived from authentic and original sources; while its stories, poems, and essays on social and domestic topics, give variety to its columns.

The Volumes of the Bazar begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to commence with the Number next after the receipt of order.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

Harper's Magazine, one year..... $4 00
Harper's Weekly, one year..... 4 00
Harper's Bazar, one year..... 4 00
The THREE above-named publications, one year..... 10 00
Any two above named, one year..... 7 00
Harper's Young People, one year..... 1 50

Postage Free to all subscribers in the United States or Canada.

The Annual Volumes of Harper's Bazar, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by mail, postage paid, or by express, free of expense (provided the freight does not exceed one dollar per volume), for $7 00 each. A complete set, comprising Twelve Volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $5 25 per volume, freight at expense of purchaser.

Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of $1 00 each.

Remittances should be made by Post-Office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

Newspapers are not to copy this advertisement without the express order of Harper & Brothers.

Address
HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

A Coming Holiday Book! By a Colored Author! To appear early in December.

"LAYS IN SUMMER LANDS."

POEMS.

BY J. WILLIS KENNEDY.

With the press notices of his remarkable appearance in Congress as the first colored Congressman elected.

The preface will be written by F. G. Barbadoes, Esq., President of the Banneker Historical Association of Washington, D. C. The transition of the colored people from slavery to Freedom has been a most remarkable one; and whatever tends to prove their genius and intellectual power should be cherished by the race itself and its tried friends.

The book will be printed on fine paper, large type, and sent to subscribers, post paid, in cloth cover for 75 cents; in paper do, 50 cents. Agents wanted. A copy will be sent to every newspaper that will publish this notice. Subscriptions received now. Address H. B. ABRAHAM, General Agent, Post-office Department, Washington, D. C.

REPUBLICAN

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

1817 F STREET, NORTHWEST,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

JAY A. HUBBELL, Chairman.
WM. E. CHANDLER, Secretary.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Hon. Wm. B. Allison.
Hon. E. H. Rollins.
Hon. Frank H. Cook.
Hon. Mark H. Dunnell.
Hon. Godlove S. Orth.
Hon. William McKinley.
Hon. Joseph J. Morgan.
Hon. George R. D.
Hon. Horatio G.

PIPER-HEIDSIECK

CHAMPAGNE.

100 baskets of this celebrated brand of Champagne landing ex steamship Hamover, from Havre, and for sale by
J. B. SOLAP & SONS,
27 and 29 Royal and 17 Camp Sts.

LIST OF PAPERS

PUBLISHED BY

COLORED ME

IN THE

United States.

CHRISTIAN RECORDER,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

CONSERVATOR,
CHICAGO, ILL.

APPEAL AND ELEVATOR,
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

FREEMAN'S JOURNAL,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

ADVANCE,
MONTGOMERY, ALA.

PEOPLE'S JOURNAL,
JACKSON MISS.

SPECTATOR,
GALVESTON, TEXAS.

JOURNAL OF INDUSTRY,
RALEIGH, N. C.

EASTERN REVIEW,
PROVIDENCE, R. I.

COLORED CITIZEN,
TOPEKA, KANSAS.

PROGRESSIVE AMERICAN,
NEW YORK, N. Y.

WEEKLY PILOT,
NASHVILLE, TENN.

WESTERN SENTINEL,
KANSAS CITY, MO.

BAPTISTE JOURNAL,
DALLAS, TEXAS.

CO-OPERATOR,
BOSTON, MASS.

WHY NOT TRY

THE PEOPLE'S ADVOCATE

(Published every Saturday)

WASHINGTON, D. C.

TRIBUNE,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

CONCORDIA EAGLE,
VIDALIA, LA.

E. OFFNER,

THE OLD RELIABLE

CROCKERY DEALER,

Is now Located at his Old Stand,

174..... Canal Street..... 174

(Opposite Varieties Theatre.)

Where he sells CHINA CROCKERY
GLASSWARE, PLATED WARE, CUT TLERY and HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS, cheaper than ever. feb10

THE FIREMEN'S INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.

FIRE, RIVER AND MARINE INSURANCE.

I. N. MARKS, President.
F. PRUDHOMME, Vice President.
R. H. BENNERS, Secretary.
JAS. BOYCE, Inspector.
W. E. RODDY, "

Office, Cor. Camp and Gravier Sts.
Represents the Fire Association of Philadelphia. feb10

GREAT JACKSON ROUTE—NEW ORLEANS, ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO
RAILROAD LINES.

DOUBLE DAILY THROUGH TRAINS.
On and after Sept. 22, 1879, Trains will depart and arrive as follows, from Cal-iope street depot:

DEPART.
Express No. 1..... 5:15 p. m.
Mixed No. 3..... 7:00 a. m.

ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..... 7:40 a. m.
Mixed No. 4..... 7:36 p. m.

No. 1 and 2 run daily, 3 and 4 daily, except Sunday.
Pullman Palace Sleepers through without change to Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, and for St. Louis a Sleeper is attached at Milan, Tenn., enabling passengers to go through without leaving the train. Only one change to New York and Eastern cities.

Accommodation trains between New Orleans and McComb City.
Leave New Orleans at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, and 7 a. m. Sunday.
Arrive at New Orleans at 9:20 a. m.
Sunday, and 10 p. m. Monday.
This is the only line running double daily through trains to and from all points North and East.
Improved sleeping and reclining chair
cars to Vicksburg daily, without change.
Tickets for sale and information given at 22 Camp street, corner Common

REDUCED RATES.
On and after THURSDAY, April 10, this line will make the following rates to suit the times:

To Boston..... $27 00
To New York..... 36 00
To Philadelphia..... 35 00
To Baltimore..... 34 00
To Washington..... 34 10
To Albany..... 35 00
To Buffalo..... 32 00
To Pittsburg..... 31 00
To Cleveland..... 30 00

Travel by this old and favorite route, which gives you low rates and the quickest time to New York and all Northern and Eastern cities.
A. D. SHELDON Agent.
F. CHANDLER, General Manager.

LOUIS BUSH, JOHN LEVERT, REUBEN G.
of Lafourche, of Iberville, of Orleans

BUSH &amp; LEVERT,

COTTON AND SUGAR

FACTORS,

No. 31 Perdido Street,

Lock Box 2047 NEW ORLEANS

WALTON, BARAGER &amp; CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

DEALER IN TEAS,

156..... FRONT STREET..... 156

NEW YORK.

PHILIP A. WALTON, JR.
CHARLES F. BARAGER.
CEM BULKLEY.

CRESCENT CITY SHAVING AND
HAIR-DRESSING SALOON BY

G. T. REID,

119..... POLYMNIA STREET..... 119
Hair-cutting a specialty. Citizens will always receive a welcome and go away satisfied. Strangers will do well to give us a call.
8-16-lm

PIERRE BOYER,
UNDERTAKER,

114 Rampart, bet. St. Louis and Tou-
louse streets.
Carriages always ready for Balls, Parties, and all other purposes on the most Reasonable Terms.
8-16-lm

WILLIAM EPPS,
(Successor to Louis Murr)

—DEALER IN—

WATCHES AND FINE JEWELRY,

137 Royal street, NEW ORLEANS.

Watches and Jewelry promptly repair-
ed. Also, Ear Piercing.

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR OLD GOLD AND SILVER

7-24-lm

F. A. GONZALES &amp; BRO.

IMPORTERS OF

HAVANA CIGARS,

Cor. Camp and Common Sts.,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

J. GHURANOVICH,

A. Jeweler &amp; Diamond Setter,

For the last 9 years at

Mr. I. O. Levi &amp; 128 Canal street.

121..... ROYAL ST. EXT..... 121

Bet. St. Louis and Toulouse,

7-24-lm NEW ORLEANS.

THE PEOPLE'S TRUE FRIEND.

COLLINS' SALVE

IS THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY THAT WILL SPEEDILY
CURE

ERYSIPELAS, SYPHILIS CANCERS,

SCALD-HEAD, TETTER-WORM,

GANGRENE, WHITE SWELLING, AND ALL ERUPTIVE DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Experimenting upon himself the Manufacturer of this powerful salve has recently discovered that it will also cure the worst kind of a BUNION and remove a deep-rooted CORN in five or six days.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

From 50 cents to $2.00 will purchase enough of this excellent SALVE, with directions and guarantee, to cure the worst of the above mentioned diseases without inflicting the least pain upon the patient. Send for trial boxes. Only 25 cents.
For sale at present only by our agent,

J. S. CLANCY,
Valmont between Live Oak and Laurel,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

N. B.—Persons sending for COLLINS' SALVE should be careful to state for what it is to be used, and of how long the reign of the disease, in order that they may receive the proper directions to effect a sure and speedy cure. 11-22

THE WEEKLY

L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N
L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N
L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N
L L L L O O O U U I I S S S I I A A N N I I A A N N

ADVOCATING THE RIGHTS OF MEN,

And representing, especially, the colored citizen, the LOUISIANIAN will maintain, as a fundamental principle, the perfect equality of all citizens, without regard to race or color.

OUR AIM

Shall be to foster kindly relations between the races, and to establish a more mutual respect for each other as the very first essential to the future peace and prosperity of our State and the South.

We enter upon our eighth year pledged to the advocacy of the

POLICY

that has governed the LOUISIANIAN from the beginning.
The necessity of a closer intercourse between the two classes—the colored and white people of our State—we rejoice to know, is fast becoming manifest; and, the recent emancipation of our people from the domination of political task-masters renders this desideratum possible.

HARMONY AND MODERATION

among all classes and between all interests; kindness and forbearance fostered where iniquity and resentment reigned, and a common service of ALL the people will elevate our loved State to an enviable and rightful position among her sisters in the development of her boundless resources and matchless advantages.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM,

The LOUISIANIAN offers rare advantages to the merchant and business man. Our large and weekly increasing circulation within the State, and throughout the country, renders the service of our columns particularly desirable.

EDUCATION.

A special feature of our paper will be its educational column, relating to matters affecting our common school system, the education of our youth, and lightenment of the masses.

FINAL.

With this statement of our purpose and laudable endeavor, we hope we shall receive, as we shall always strive to merit, commendation and support. Identify with every interest of our State, proud of its history and its advantages, we shall unflinchingly work in its behalf; counting no exertion too great or services too onerous to command and insure success.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:

One Year..... $2 00
Six Months..... 1 00
Three Months..... 50
Single Copy..... 5

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

One square, first insertion..... $1 00
Each subsequent insertion..... 75
Yearly advertisements taken at reduced rates. 75
Six Months..... 2 50
Three Months..... 3 00
One Month..... 20 00
Single Copy..... 30 00
Twelve Months..... 40 00

OFFICE—644 CAMP STREET,

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

J. L. MCCLURE. J. R. MCCLURE.

McCLURE,

(SUCCESSOR TO ALBERT WANGENHEIM)

A R R R T T T T I I S S S T T T
A A R R T T I I S S S T T T
A A R R T T I I S S S T T T

—AND—

PHOTOGRAPHER,

131..... POITRAS ST..... 131

NEW ORLEANS.

Photographs of every description, size style taken and finished in a superior manner.

A specialty made of copying and enlarging small defective pictures and finishing them equal to pictures from life, in COLORS, CRAYON and INDIA INK.
The largest sky-light, and best facilities in the city, for taking "naps." 11-30 ly

A WEEK in your own town, and no capital risked. You can give the business a trial without expense. The best opportunity ever offered for those willing to work. You should try nothing else until you see for yourself what you can do at the business we offer. No room to explain here. You can devote all your time or only your spare time to the business, and make great pay for every hour that you work. Women make as much as men. Send for special private terms and particulars which we mail free. $5 outfit free. Don't complain of hard times while you have such a chance. Address H. HALL

LET & CO., Portland, Maine. 6-21

THE INTER-OCEAN.
THREE EDITIONS

Weekly, Semi-Weekly, and Daily,

Established less than three years ago as a Representative Republican Paper, pledged to maintain and defend the principles and organization of the National Republican party the INTER-OCEAN was as early pushed to the forefront of journalism and achieved a success unprecedented in the history of such enterprises. By universal assent it has been assigned position as

THE LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER

IN THE NORTHWEST.

Its columns are carefully guarded against objectionable matter, and every effort is made to render it a pleasant and profitable companion at the home fire side

The Commercial Department.

Is conducted with great care, and everything possible is done to make the Market Reports such as the Farmers and Business Men of the Northwest can rely upon.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

Is carefully edited by gentlemen of ability and experience.

IN LITERATURE,

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS,

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC

CORRESPONDENCE

A fit everything that goes to make

First-Class Newspaper

It is not excelled by any publication in the country.

The INTER-OCEAN is a

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER,

Terms of Subscription,

DAILY.

By mail (payable in advance), per year $12 00
By mail (payable in advance), 3 months 3 00
Sunday edition, per year (extra)..... 2 00

SEMI-WEEKLY.

By mail, per year (in advance)..... $3 00
By mail, club of four (in advance)..... 11 00
By mail, club of six (in advance)..... 16 00
By mail, club of eight (in advance)..... 20 00
By mail, club of ten (in advance)..... 25 00
One FREE copy with every club of ten.

WEEKLY.

By mail, per year (in advance)..... $1 50
By mail, club of four (in advance)..... 5 00
By mail, club of six (in advance)..... 7 00
By mail, club of eight (in advance)..... 9 00
By mail, club of ten (in advance)..... 11 00
One FREE copy with every club of twenty.

Sample Copies Free. Money can be sent by draft, money order, express, or registered letter, at our risk.
Address

INTER-OCEAN,

119 Lake Street, Chicago

$100 $12 a day at home by the industrious. Capital not required; we will start you. Men, women, boys and girls make money faster at work for us than at anything else. The work is light and pleasant, and such as any one can go right at. Those who are wise who see this notice will send us their addresses at once and see for themselves. Costly outfit and terms free. Now is the time. Those already at work are laying up large sums of money. Address
TRUE & CO., Augusta, Maine 6-21

EDWARD LILIENTHAL,

—DEALER IN—

JEWELRY, WATCHES AND ## SILVERWARE,

No. 96 CANAL STREET

NEW ORLEANS.

AGENT FOR THE DIAMOND EYE

GLASSES. June 6, 1874.

SUN MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Cash Capital, $500,00

With Cash Dividends to Insure

—Issues Policies on—

FIRE, RIVER AND MARINE RISKS,

Office—12 Camp, between Gravier and Natchez streets, NEW ORLEANS.

JAMES L. DAY, Pres't

H. CHREPTER, Sec'y

C. E. GIRARDEY,

Auctioneer and Appra

31 CAMP STREET,

NEW ORLEANS.

DR. J. T. NEWMAN,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

No. 512 St. Andrew Street

S. L. DAVIS,

RESTAURANT AND ICE CREAM SALOON

119 FOURTH AVENUE,

CHICAGO.

Furnished rooms to rent with or without board.

A. MONTFORT,

Cheap Family Grocer

No. 228 BAYOU ROAD STREET,

(Cor. Traine's)

Goods delivered free of charge, in any part of the city.

A. BROUSSEAU &amp; SON,

17 CHARLES STREET,

Importers of and dealers in

CARPETS, FLOOR OIL CLOTHS, CHIN

AND COCA MATTING, TABLES AND FI-

ANO COVERS, WINDOW SHADES,

CRUMB CLOTHS, RUGS, MATS,

CARRIAGE, TABLE &amp; EN-

AMEL OIL CLOTHS.